

Chief Product Officer Todd Simpson on the Future of Shared Services and IT at HHS

Tue, 06/04/2019 - 12:09

Todd Simpson
Chief Product Officer

Department of Health and Human Services Chief Product Officer Todd Simpson sees the importance of technology in managing the agency's data and shared services. He explains how the Reimagine Initiative is looking at the management of cybersecurity and the cloud network, for example, as well as how the agency is approaching emerging technologies like artificial intelligence and blockchain.

Simpson will speak at the upcoming CXO Tech Forum: Acquisition Innovation June 20 in Arlington, Virginia. Register today.
