HHS CIO Discusses Cybersecurity Posture and Developments

Jose Arrieta's team is looking at innovative ways to stay ahead of security risks and keep the workforce trained on the newest systems.

Fri, 10/04/2019 - 14:00

Jose Arrieta
CIO

Department of Health and Human Services CIO Jose Arrieta and Senior Transformation Advisor Perryn Ashmore provide an update on what the agency is doing to improve its cybersecurity efforts through recurrent neural networks and how they are approaching training its workforce as the agency develops and implements new systems.

View printer friendly version
Health Human Services
Federal Cybersecurity training
Federal Workforce
national security
Video