CIO Karen Evans Talks New Challenges Ahead at DHS

Season: 3
| Episode: 22
The agency is tackling data center consolidation, workforce upskilling, and modernizing its network.
Karen Evans, CIO, DHS
Fri, 07/31/2020 - 16:05

Karen Evans was newly appointed CIO at Department of Homeland Security. Her prior leadership stems from a start at the National Park Service and spans across many cybersecurity areas at Department of Energy and beyond. She discusses how she will tackle the initiatives ahead at the agency, including its data center consolidation, workforce upskilling and modernizing its network.