Listen: Leaders Explore the Human Element in Cybersecurity

Season: 3
| Episode: 4

Federal cybersecurity strategies need to prioritize people.
Fri, 09/11/2020 - 09:58

Federal officials came together during our Sept. 2 CyberScape virtual event to discuss priorities in security and hiring the next generation of leaders, including a conversation on women in tech with Katie Arrington, Jothi Dugar and Venice Goodwine. Looking ahead, standards like TIC 3.0 and CMMC will have lasting impact on federal security strategies.
