The Department of Education is undergoing a modernization journey that ramped up when CIO Jason Gray joined in 2016. Gray discusses the progress since then, which resulted in FITARA score improvements, cloud development, pivots during the pandemic and an increasing focus on data security to protect student and financial aid information.

This episode is sponsored by Dell Technologies and Carahsoft.
View printer friendly version
GovCast
Department of Education modernization
FITARA
cloud COVID-19
data security
Dell Technologies StudioCIO page Podcast