Federal IT Leaders Discuss the Pivotal Role of Industry in Government Modernization

How federal agencies can best work with industry to upgrade outdated technology.

Technology and management experts from FCC, HHS, DHA, ICIT, DHS, the Marine Corps explain the essential differences between the private sector and public service - and the essential lessons and tools that private partners can provide the federal government.

View printer friendly version
IT transformation
Contains video
IT modernization
Video