

GovCast: 18F Acting Executive Director Angela Colter on the User Experience

Colter shared her path to government and what's next for the young GSA office.
Wed, 04/03/2019 - 10:18

Angela Colter talks how new technology is not always in focus in modernizing government systems, and that taking into account the process and user needs should be any organization's foundation. The acting head of the General Service Administration's 18F office discusses her strategic vision for IT services and recruitment over the next year.
